

ProHire™ Express

ProHire™ Express is designed to enhance employability at the college and university level. This 40 sessions program prepares students to face interviews by filling the gap between job aspirants' knowledge, skills and attitude and recruiters' demands, identified through extensive industry research, by providing training in English Language and Communication Skills, Personality Development, Aptitude and Interview Skills.

Program Highlights

Target Age group	18-23 years
Level	Under- and post-graduate students; all streams
Program Duration	40 Sessions
Modules	3

Benefits of ProHire™ Express

- Enhance employability and industry readiness - knowledge, skills and attitude - through curriculum and content designed for Employers by Employers
- Develop real life skills by learning experientially with Aspire's accredited trainers
- Demonstrate superior performance in placement exercises
- Demonstrate confidence in social, classroom and interview/ work situations
- Expand career and compensation opportunities

Features

- Instructor-led training
- International Certification from University of Cambridge, ESOL Examinations
- Covering Aptitude, English Language and Communication Skills, & Personality Development and Soft Skills
- Curriculum designed for Employers by Employers
- Proprietary Content, with standardized content, facilitator guides and student handbooks, developed by industry experts
- Proprietary pre-and-post-training assessments for every training and employability Objective
- Experiential Learning Methodology delivered by Certified Accredited Trainers.
- Technology Platform – EEMS™ – that automates the assessment processes; includes installation on campus network for easy access of learning material in campus lab

